THE PACKRAT'S HOME

Written and Formatted for Choral Speaking

(To find the proper rhythm, first read-aloud and clap through the piece as you go. Each underlined word or word part falls directly on a beat. As you read, clap on each underlined word, keeping the rhythm steady. Be careful not to read too fast! This is a rehearsal technique and readers will not clap throughout the entire piece during performance.)

NOTE: Remember that a choral speaking "voice choir" must seem to speak in one voice. Please rehearse your speakers to speak and breath together and in unison. This piece should move along like a flowing river (as most poems probably should) but also convey a sense of lightheartedness and fun.

Voice Choir Positions: Place girls together on one side of the stage or risers, boys together on the other. Place them beside each other and angle them in such a way that they are slightly facing one another. Solo speakers may be positioned in a line down front and/or slightly to the side of the choir).

ALL SPEAKERS:           Dropped a dime in the desert,
                                  Popped a button in the sand.
                                  Lost a marble near a cactus,
                                  And I'm sure you understand

GIRL SPEAKERS:        These things are gone forever.
                                  They're not just out on loan.

BOY SPEAKERS:         And piled with chunks of cholla

ALL SPEAKERS:         ARE A PACKRAT'S HOME!

CHORUS:

BOY SPEAKERS: All night this critter scurries,
Hunting treasures. Hurry! Scurry!

GIRL SPEAKERS: You're nest needs feathering

SOLO 1: BIG nest –
But who's measuring?

ALL SPEAKERS: My ring, my watch, my walkman
Were just outside my tent.
I was camping in the desert
And I know just where they went.

GIRL SPEAKERS: These things are gone forever,
Though I may search and roam,

BOY SPEAKERS: And piled with chunks of cholla

ALL SPEAKERS: ARE A PACKRAT'S HOME!

CHORUS:

BOY SPEAKERS: All night this critter scurries,
Hunting treasures. Hurry! Scurry!

GIRL SPEAKERS: You're nest needs feathering

SOLO 2: LARGE nest –
But who's measuring?

ALL SPEAKERS: Once had an I.D. bracelet
Given to me by my brother.
Once had a special silver pen,
A souvenir from mother.

GIRL SPEAKERS: Once had a gold chain necklace,
A gift from cousin Joan.

BOY SPEAKERS: Now piled with chunks of cholla

ALL READERS: ARE A PACKRAT'S HOME!
