

READER 1: Early one morning a sweet little grandmother decided to make an apple pie.

8/GRANDMA: "My grandchildren are coming to visit. I want to serve a special treat!"

READER 2: So the sweet little grandmother prepared two pie crusts. Then she found her apple basket on the back porch.

READER 3: The basket was filled to the brim with many different kinds of apples.

READER 4: The sweet little grandmother picked out

READER 5: the big apples.

READER 4: She picked out

READER 6: the red apples.

READER 4: She picked out

READER 7: the juicy apples.

READER 8: Soon the sweet little grandmother had five perfect apples. She had

READER 1: one Northern Spy apple,

READER 2: one Spartan apple,

READER 3: one McIntosh apple,

READER 4: one Red Delicious apple,

READER 5: and one Idared apple.

READER 6: The sweet little grandmother placed the apples upon her kitchen cutting board and sliced them into neat little slices. Then she placed the neat little slices into a pan lined with pie crust.

READER 7: She mixed the slices with sugar.

READER 8: She sprinkled the slices with cinnamon.

READER 1: She dotted the slices with butter.

READER 2: The sweet little grandmother covered the neat little slices with the other pie crust and sealed the edges. Then she took her slicing knife and cut a large letter A into the tip top of the pie.

READER 3: The letter A stood for APPLE!,

READER 1: one Northern Spy apple,

READER 2: one Spartan apple,
