

NARRATOR: A poor hungry man,
His wife, and a mouse,
All lived together
In a round sod house.

(Circle is drawn, as shown at back of Teacher Script).

CHILD 1: Here is the house.

CHILD 2: Round as can be.

CHILD 3: But there's more to this story
Than the

ALL: EYE CAN SEE!

NARRATOR: The man and the woman
Didn't know the mouse was there.
It lived in the stuffing
Of an old round chair.

(Small circle is drawn, as shown at back of Teacher Script).

CHILD 4: Here is the chair.

CHILD 5: Comfy as can be.

CHILD 6: But there's more to this story
Than the

ALL: EYE CAN SEE!

NARRATOR: A large pond of water
At the house's side
Was round as a ball,
Deep, cool, and wide.

(Larger circle is drawn, as shown at back of Teacher Script).

CHILD 7: Here is the pond,

CHILD 8: Cool as can be

CHILD 9: But there's more to this story
Than the

ALL: EYE CAN SEE!

NARRATOR: Near the pond,
Camping tents for two
Gave campers from the city
Something to do.

(Two tent shapes are drawn, as shown at back of Teacher Script).
