

READER                    But all they found was a dead dead-end.

(Draw line H)

READER                    So they ran back to the path again.

(Draw line I)

ALL CHORUS:

Two little mice, lost and alone
Will they ever find their home?
They'll keep looking for a sign,
As they run from line to line.

Verse 4

READER                    Pete said,

READER 5:                "Now this will never do!"
I just can't keep on following you.
You look to the left; I'll look to the right.
If we find the way, we'll light a bright light.

READER 3:                "And the other will see, and we'll get together,
No matter the time, no matter the weather!"

ALL CHORUS:

Two little mice, lost and alone
Will they ever find their home?
They'll keep looking for a sign,
As they run from line to line.

Verse 5

READER            So Laura ran left and Pete ran right.

(Draw shapes J and K)

READER            Ran right and left through most of the night.

(Draw shapes L and M)

READER            She tried three trails, and he tried four.

(Draw shapes N and O)

READER            They were all dead ends, but who's keeping score?

(Draw shape P)

READER            And they finally met back at the path.

(Draw line P)

READER            Tried how many trails?

READER            Can you do the math?

ALL CHORUS:

Two little mice, lost and alone
Will they ever find their home?
They'll keep looking for a sign,
As they run from line to line.

Verse 6

READER            The mice looked up, and what did they see?
Pete said,

READER 5:        "Look at that!" And then said she,
"The path to home has been there all along.
We tried every trail, but we weren't wrong,"

READER 3:        "We just missed the signs",

READER            said little mouse Laura,

READER 3:        "So light the candles and follow the Menorah!

(Draw shapes Q, R, S, T,U, V, W, X)

ALL CHORUS:    Two little mice, lost and alone,
                      They have finally found their home!
                      Light in the window, a Hanukkah Menorah,
                      Led them home, both Pete and Laura.

READER            They then joined hands with sister, Monica,

ALL:                To wish you a very HAPPY HANUKKAH!

THE END
